

Campus 2009 Program

	Monday, August 24	Tuesday, August 25	Wednesday, August 26
9:00 – 10:30 Plenary Session	9-10h : Coffee and welcome in small groups 10h00-10h30 : Introduction - plenary session 10h30-12h00 : Conference - plenary session : Approaches to violence and non-violence Christian Mellon Director of CERAS	History of non-voluntary immigration in TaIwan and renewal of the life force of Taiwanese youth Lu Tze-Han Behind violence Yang Chin-Ling	Whose view ? Whose story ? Yang Sol What is at stake in writing the history of a forgotten neighbourhood ? Rebouh Larbi, Michel Garcin, Antonia Garcin, Andy Garcin, Pierre Guarino
10:30- 11:00		Break	Break
11:00-13:00 Workshops		Training young people for long-time commitment with very poor children and their families Lu Tze-Han Yang Chin-Ling	Writing the life stories of people having experienced extreme poverty Floriane Caravatta Claire Bibard And speakers of the plenary session
	12:00-13 :00 : Practical information and presentation of the workshops	"And what if it wasn't true?" The Paucity of the International Argument on Extreme Poverty Bruno Mallard	Why have extremely poor sedentary families from western Europe become less visible in large metropolitan areas in France? Denis Gendre
		The Fourth World People's University : Building emancipating Knowledge Geneviève Tardieu	A Right to Have Someone Beside You? Discriminatory Social Relations and the Preventive Role of Law Andrea Carotti Sepulveda The draft guiding principles on extreme poverty and human rights: Opportunities for mutual transformation and democracy Wouter van Ginneken
13:00-15:00	Lunch	Lunch	Lunch
15:00-17:00 Workshops	The Fourth World People's University : a place of recognition for the poorest, and training for partnership François Guillot	Thai society seen through the eyes of its disadvantaged children Alain Souchard	Plenary session: The Urban Ghetto. Segregation, Violence and Poverty in Today's France Didier Lapeyronnie
	From spaces of exclusion to spaces of inclusion (1) Victor Friedman Michal Razer	From spaces of exclusion to spaces of inclusion (2) Victor Friedman Michal Razer
	Structural violence in Cameroon, a challenge to Human Rights and Democracy Joseph Zingui	Is the non-request of rights, a silence with consequences ? Peter Schaeppi Claire Saint Sernin
17:30-18:30			Group Discussions
19:00-20:00	Dinner	Dinner	Dinner
20:30-22:00	Free evening	Visit of the International Center ATD Fourth World in Mery	Film ; optional visit to CIJW in Baillet

Campus 2009 Program

	Thursday, August 27	Friday, August 28
9:00-10:30 Plenary Session	Poverty and Solidarity Blandine Destremeau	Lack of access to culture : cause and consequence of violence Patrice Meyer-Bisch
11:30-11:00	Break	Break
11:00-13:00 Workshops	Forms and practices of solidarity liable to combine social and economic efficiency Blandine Destremeau With Gérard Bureau and Christian Saint Sernin	Nothing in our life is beyond redemption Martin Costa
	Workshop: writings of Joseph Wresinski (1) Patrick Brun Shwu Shiow Yang French-Mandarin and language-based	Workshop: writings of Joseph Wresinski (1) Patrick Brun Shwu Shiow Yang French/Mandarin
	Happiness amidst unhappiness Marie-Odile Nover	Mutual transformation Maryvonne Caillaux, James Jaboureck, Pascal Lallement, Jean Pierre Daud
13:00-15:00	Lunch	13:00-14:00 Lunch buffet
15:00-17:00 Workshops	Dignity and Social recognition of parents whose children are in foster care Régis Sécher	14h00 -15h00 Conclusion 15h00-16h00 Evaluation in small groups
	Ethical and methodological questions in research on poverty Christopher Winship Genevieve Tardieu
	Social Assistance and its counterparts Aurélien Purière
19h00-22h00	Farewell dinner

Title underlined: presentation in English

Title in italic: presentation in Mandarin

Normal print: presentation in French